NOT A VOTE CAST

Franklin Square Precinct Workers Idle For 12 Hours Tuesday

Twelve hours wasted!
That's the story of four election board workers in the Franklin Square precinct of Salem township, who sat 12 hours waiting for a voter yesterday—but one never appeared.

The vigil cost the county some $42, too.

Because of the Salem public school tax levy issue the polls in Franklin Square had to be opened for 12 eligible school district voters.

None troubled to vote, however, and the four workers spent the day in idleness. Oddly enough, the precinct workers were not eligible to vote.

Things weren't much better at the Butler Northwest precinct in Salem township, where only four votes were cast.

FEW TAX BILL CHANGES SEEN

Senate Committee Says "20-30" Proposal Likely To Stand

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 7.—Top Republicans on the senate finance committee indicated today that few changes are likely in the "20-30" house bill cutting individual income taxes some $4,000,000,000 a year.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) summoned the committee into a session behind closed doors to begin detailed consideration of the legislation. In two weeks of open hearings the group heard recommendations of the plan from industrialists, heavy criticism of it from the CIO, and a declaration against any tax reduction whatever at this time from Secretary of the Treasury Snyder.

Millikin said there is no doubt the senate committee would take the house bill as a pattern, but he also noted that there is a wide difference of opinion as to when the cut should take effect.

The house bill would make the reduction retroactive to last Jan. 1, but important elements within the committee contend that date should be set forward to July 1, the start of a new fiscal year.

The bill which came over from the house provides a 30 per cent tax reduction for persons whose income after exemptions is $1,000 or less, 20 per cent off for the vast majority with incomes between $1,396 and $302,000, and a 10 per cent cut for top bracket taxpayers.

Tastes First Food in 25 Years Following Operation

CHICAGO, May 7.—Jack Park of Orem, Utah, is 21 years old but this week he tasted and swallowed the first food he can remember.

When he was an infant, Park swallowed lye while his mother was doing the family laundry. For a few years he was able to swallow small amounts of liquid but when he was five, scar tissue blocked off the esophagus, the food passage connecting the mouth and the stomach.

During the last 16 years Park took nourishment at three hour intervals through an opening into the abdominal wall leading into the stomach.

On March 21 he was admitted to the University of Illinois Research and Educational hospital. An operation made possible the passage of a braided surgical silk down his throat. This opening was enlarged gradually and this week Park swallowed and tasted his first food in 16 years.

His diet is limited now to liquids but hospital authorities predicted he would be able to eat almost all foods within a few months.

Chief Nerr Gaunt said the police have issued a total of 422 tickets for overtime violations in 11 actual days of meter enforcement.

4 Ohio Mayors Lose In Primary; Youngstown Bonds Approved

(By Associated Press)
Ohio's spring primary elections, marked by light balloting in most areas yesterday, were featured by the failure of at least four mayors to beat party foes and the defeat of the majority of local bond issues.

Mayors who lost out included Republicans James H. Neighbor of Newark, Arthur H. Williams of New Philadelphia, Earl Greenawalt of East Liverpool, and Robert H. Goff of Martin's Ferry, a Democrat.

Republicans generally cast heavier votes than Democrats.

Lima found itself with the most incongruous situation of all. Two Republican candidates for the municipal judgeship, James B. Stein and L. B. Steele, will oppose one another next fall. Stein won the GOP nomination against Steele, but Steele beat out Stein for the Democratic candidacy on the basis of write-in returns.

Youngstown O. K.'s Bonds
Youngstown put over a $5,400,000 bond issue for new school buildings, but Akron refused to approve a proposed 3.85 mill tax levy to increase school teachers' salaries.

State Representative Fred Harter held a 2 to 1 edge over his rival for Akron's Democratic mayoralty nomination, John H. Mihaly, Republican incumbent Charles E. Sussner, who was unopposed.

Youngstown's Republican nomination went to Charles P. Henderson, an attorney, who polled an unofficial 12,369 votes to 5,530 for Arthur H. Williams, Mayor Ralph W. O'Neill, unopposed in the Democratic primary, is Henderson's November foe.

Other mayoralty results (based on incomplete, unofficial returns included):

Steubenville — Republican, Walter Sterling; Democrat, Wilmer Brashear.

Alliance-Republican, Wade W. Shidler, incumbent; Democrat, Robert D. Althouse.

East Liverpool — Republican, Harry C. Smith, Democrat, Arnold W. Devan.

Canton — Republican, J. Stewart Ake; Democrat, incumbent Carl F. Klein.

Massillon — Republican, incumbent S. Robert Weirich; Democrat, Lea H. Helms.

St. Clairsville — Republican nominee — Incumbent C. B. Bradford; Democrat, George Jamison.

Martins Ferry — Republican, Carl H. Yoho; Democrat, Edwards Shrodes.

Dover — Republican, William Goodwin; Democrat, incumbent Harry Stucky.

FROST PREDICTED IN AREA TONIGHT

Frost is predicted in the Salem district for tonight, with below normal temperatures covering the entire Midwest.

Light snow flurries occurred today near Lakes Michigan and Superior.

In Salem early today the temperature dropped to a low of 37 degrees. The high yesterday was 53.

The U. S. Weather bureau said an outbreak of cold air from Canada covered the area from the northern and central Rockies eastward to the Great Lakes region, bringing below seasonal temperatures as far south as northern Texas.

Sample minimum readings today included 21 at Bemidji, Minn.; 28 at Dickinson, N. D.; 38 at Chicago; 30 at La Crosse, Wis.; 27 at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and 23 at Land O' Lakes, Wis.

Snow flurries were reported in the upper peninsula of Michigan and in eastern Wisconsin, and light snow fell in Chicago.

The cool weather will last most of the week, the Weather bureau said.

Greenawalt Beaten In East Liverpool

EAST LIVERPOOL, May 7.—Harry C. Smith, a war veteran and painting contractor, defeated O. Earl Greenawalt, seeking a sixth term, by 17 votes in a four-man Republican mayoralty race in Tuesday's primary election.

The unofficial count gave Smith 1,358, Greenawalt 1,341, John G. Hill 535 and Alfred Pitsch 128.

Arnold W. Devan, a druggist and former mayor, won the Democratic nomination, defeating Lee Copenhaver by 63 votes in a five-man contest.

The vote was Devan 322, Copenhaver 259, Vincent J. McGeehan 192, Edward Dopler 174 and Ross Dorff 106.

47 TRUCK LOADS OF REFUSE ARE HAULED

The city's spring cleanup collection has netted 47 truck loads through Monday and Tuesday, Services Director Frank K. Wilson said today.

The four city trucks are working in the southeastern section of the city today and probably will finish by Friday.

Wilson reports that the collections are slightly under the usual amount. He believes the excessive rain may have been responsible for the drop in the amount.

Johnson polled 668 to Loop's 388 in carrying 13 of Salem's 14 precincts and will oppose Democrat Paul Strader, who drew 176 Democratic votes.

The vote totaled 1,320, of which 1,074 were Republican and 246 Democratic.

WALK REPAIRS ARE DEMANDED

City Council Takes Action To Hasten Sidewalk Improvements

City council will initiate action to require property owners throughout the city to repair or replace hazardous sidewalks soon, it was revealed at council's meeting in city hall Tuesday night.

First step in the improvement program, which will demand immediate action of those owners instructed to repair or replace faulty sidewalks, will be orders to owners on N. Lincoln ave. between Sugar-tree alley and E. Third st., for repair and replacement work.

Discussing a recommendation from the streets, alleys and sidewalks committee, council indicated that it would adopt a resolution at its next meeting instructing property owners what repair work it deems necessary.

15 Days To Act

Action by the owner to correct the faulty pavements must be taken within 15 days after the order is issued, City Solicitor Henry L. Reese explained.

If an owner doesn't improve the walks as requested, the city will then do the work and the costs will be placed on the tax duplicate for collection.

Council's committee indicated that further sidewalk improvements will be recommended at later dates.

Four petitions from property owners requesting a variety of improvements to their streets were heard and turned over to the proper committees.

The petitions included: One asking the extension of city water mains and sanitary sewers on Maple st. from Fair ave. to Adams ave.

One requesting a sewer installation on Spring st. between Arch ave. and W. Perry ave.

One requesting the abandonment of an alley running east and west between W. Third st. and W. Fourth st., bordering on Stewart ave.

One requesting the vacation of an alley bordering on the Deming Co. property off Perry st.

Mayor R. R. Johnson reported an income of $772.50 to the city in his office in March. Of that $10 was from building permits, $37 from licenses, $461 from city fines, $152.50 from state patrol cases and $112 from city costs.

All Under One Roof

Senate banking and currency committee clearance of the Wagner-Elender-Taft housing bill doesn't mean this controversial proposal will be enacted by the 80th Congress. But if the opponents who killed it in the 79th Congress and apparently can commit murder again will look twice, they will discover that more than housing is under the legislative roof this time.

Senator Taft's support of the bill has become a tense issue in party politics. If the Republican party decides to repudiate its strongest congressional leader on his long-range proposal for doing something about the country's long-range housing deficiency, more than housing will suffer. The party will have advertised its decision to shun a kind of liberalism so mild that Senator Taft can support it without compromising his conservatism.

The Wagner-Elender-Taft bill, which has been grossly misrepresented by a great many persons who never read it and know nothing about it, is an attempt to tie together, define and broaden numerous federal efforts to overcome the national housing deficiency. Its goal is 15,000,000 new dwelling units by 1958. Its procedure is to stimulate construction with private capital by guaranteeing safe and adequate returns. Its theory is that the United States cannot afford to let the devil take the hindmost in competitive enterprise; that the minority which can't keep pace with the competition for adequate housing must be looked after by means of an inclusive federal housing program—not federal housing, but a housing program.

For obvious reasons, the building industry is opposed to federal housing programs at this time. It doesn't need them. But let another slump come, with the industry all stocked up and no place to go, and there would be a clamor as of a million carpenters nailing on sheathing for federal programs galore. The Wagner-Elender-Taft bill is a proposal to get organized now, with a view to getting somewhere by 1958.

Boo To Ilya

Ilya Ehrenberg, the Soviet Union's roving reporter, who visited the United States a year ago, has been trowling sarcasm on the American way of life ever since. That's his privilege.

Who, he inquires in Pravda—as if he didn't know—are the half-baked crusaders, expansionists and hypocrites? Who's carrying an atomic bomb in one hand and an Easter egg in the other? Whose guns, warships and instructors are being sent to China, Turkey, Iran and Greece? There's more, all suggesting that Ilya feels extremely queasy when he thinks about the United States. He should feel that way.

The fact Americans forget most often is that Russia's fear of the United States goes away back to the American revolution, to the czars and their royal buddies who were scared silly of the American republic and its libertarian upstarts preaching that the people were more important than the despots. That was radical stuff in the 19th century, and it's still radical stuff in the middle of the 20th century for the rulers of Russia. Boo to you, Ilya.

Beyond Atomic Fission

To members of the American Physical Society, now convening in Washington, atomic fission already is old stuff. Now science's trail-blazers, far ahead of the pack, are dipping gingerly into the field of sub-nuclear physics. What they will find is still indefinite, but the formulas evolved and the figures read off slides indicate that somewhere in the vicinity is a source of power thousands of times greater than atomic fission.

Sub-nuclear physics apparently has the same relation to atomic physics that calculus has to algebra. It's more complex, having to do with protons and neutrons, the elementary particles which comprise the nuclei of atoms.

Today's far-reaching pioneers in physics may be toying with the Pandora's Box that will release new and undreamed of sorrow on the world, may even end the world, for all we know. Or they may be on the verge of opening new and beautiful vistas for us all. Your guess is as good as the next man's.

Grateful For Small Favors

Each day's news from Palestine is, if possible, worse than the news of the day before. The British may be shucking off their responsibility in the Mediterranean, but they are still holding the hottest of all Middle Eastern potatoes.

They have known for a long time what their critics are now beginning to realize: There is no solution for the problem in Palestine. The problem is how to reconcile a conflict between irreconcilables, some of whom may be playing the game of the one foreign power with everything to gain and nothing to lose by encouraging chaos in the Holy Land.

Americans, between criticisms of the British for not doing the impossible and side-taking in a conflict that cannot be settled but might be controlled, given enough time, should be grateful for small favors. They do not have Palestine to worry about under the Truman doctrine—yet.

No Union Now

The A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. have decided there will be no union merger now. They have agreed to work in close cooperation, but the C. I. O. declines, for the present, to enter the federation on terms similar to those granted the United Mine Workers last year.

Like a merger of two religious faiths with tenets which are almost identical, union consolidation can be a slow process. Merger of the two principal federations eventually will come about, no doubt, but it is dependent upon many intangible factors, not the least of which is the personalities of the men who sit at the conference table to work out the details.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Causes of Tooth Disorders

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
UNFORTUNATELY, the work people sometimes has a bad effect on their health. But in the light of present medical knowledge more of these hazards can be avoided if only they are recognized and proper preventive measures taken.

Dr. Lyman D. Heacock of the National Institute of Health, Washington, D. C., discusses some of these in the International Medical Digest. He points out that a number of conditions affecting the teeth and mouth may develop in certain industries.

Dusts Are Produced
For example, in certain types of work, dusts are produced which have an abrasive or wearing quality. These dusts over a long period of time may have an ill effect on the tooth enamel. These include such materials as sand, aluminum hydroxide and a red substance known as hematite.

Then, too, softening of the tooth structure may be due to the action of certain acids. Sulfuric acid, nitric, phosphoric and hydrofluoric acids have a direct action not only on the enamel of the teeth but upon the dentin within the teeth. Exposure of the teeth directly or indirectly to these substances may result in tooth damage.

An Acid Dust
An acid dust may occur in the atmosphere in some industrial plants which sooner or later has a dissolving effect on the tooth enamel. There are certain chemicals which may discolor the teeth such as chrome, which stains them yellow, and copper which causes a green color. The gums may become discolored as a result of certain minerals getting into the body such as mercury, bismuth, lead and nickel.

Inflammation of Mouth
Then, too, inflammation of the mouth tissues may result from the action of many substances. For example, mercury may cause sore gums and inflammation of the lining membrane of the mouth. There may be ulcers or sores on the lips, and on the floor of the mouth produced by the action of chromate fumes.

Exposure to benzene may produce bleeding of the gums, ulcers of the lining membrane of the mouth and, even, destruction of bone tissue. The effects of radium poisoning are well known to many people. These include destruction of the hard and soft tissues of the mouth.

In preventing these mouth disorders, an effort should be made to remove their cause and of course, good hygiene of the mouth is important. This means keeping the teeth clean and well cared for.

Any infections in the teeth or gums should be cleared up. The teeth and mouth should be regularly examined and any abnormal conditions found, corrected at once. This, of course, means regular visits to the dentist.

PLAN COLUMBIANA SCHOOL CAFETERIA

COLUMBIANA, May 7 — Establishment of a cafeteria in the high school building was decided upon at a meeting of the board of education Monday evening.

The contract was awarded Harry Hill & Son of Columbiana, the work to be completed for the beginning of the school year in September.

A report from representatives of Ohio State university who made a survey of the needs of the Columbiana schools is expected to be laid before the board at its June meeting when some plan will be adopted for meeting the growing needs. Construction of a new high school building is a possibility.

The auditorium and gym of the high school building are undergoing renovation and repainting. The interior of the building is to be painted before the re-opening of school.

District Out of Debt

Columbiana special school district is virtually out of debt, it was revealed by Supt. H. F. Richmond in his talk at the meeting of the Rotary club Monday evening. Dwelling on the survey recently completed by the research department of O. S. U. Richmond showed charts made by those in charge of the survey comparing the Columbiana situation with those of eight other Ohio schools of similar size and type. The remaining $3,200 indebtedness of the school district will be paid this year and next.

Richard Lehman was program chairman.

Editor Speaks

William Powers, managing editor of the Youngstown Vindicator, who was in the military service in Europe was the speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis club Monday evening. He spoke on the denazification program in Germany.

Miss Yarian is a trombonist in the university orchestra, and has been selected as one of 40 members of the university choir for a six weeks summer tour through Texas and California to start June 10.

The anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in the United States was celebrated Tuesday evening, beginning with an open meeting of Panora lodge and Panora Rebekah lodge, with their families and friends as guests.

* WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT

If you want a happy marriage take a husband who is just as intelligent as you are—or smarter.

That tip comes from a Cleveland psychologist, Mrs. Clara C. Polley, and at the right time, with the marrying month of June just around the corner.

That's sound advice, too. Take a critical look at some of the marriages around you.

What happens when the wife is obviously smarter than her husband? She may over-play her hand at trying to make him look smarter than he is and ends up by making them both look silly. Or she becomes one of those domineering women who boss their husbands around and make the family decisions.

But reverse the picture, and the marriage can be highly successful.

SHE CAN BE HERSELF

The woman who realizes her husband is smarter than she is doesn't have to spend her life building him up to other people or take on the job of heading the family. She can be herself. And if she's smart she will keep right on educating herself through the years in an effort to keep up with him and be a credit to him.

Even if she never improves her mind much her husband needn't feel apologetic about her lack of brains. Not if she makes up for it with a sweet disposition, companionship and home-making talent.

That is why the girl who is really smart looks for a husband who is even smarter.

A Real 'Pippin'

SPEAKING OF apples, here's a "pippin"! She's Eleanor Roberts, Revloc, Pa., and she's been chosen by the Pennsylvania State Horticultural Society to represent the state at the annual Apple Festival in Winchester, Va., to be held on May 1 and 2.

May Build Cabins

The construction of cabins in Quaker canyon here is strongly requested by ministers of Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends to proceed immediately this summer.

This reveals that the churchmen are concerned about the continued lack of Yearly Meeting rooming facilities.

If the building is to be completed as desired, there is still need for money, labor and materials.

Pine trees were planted and the log cabin and grounds cleaned when members of the Boy Scout Troop 68 met Saturday afternoon. Glenn Stier was a visitor.

In the recent contest, held recently, Robert Hoffman was awarded first prize of a Scout knife, and Jackie Meier second prize of a flash light.

The next meeting will be with the leader, Carl Martig, Wednesday, May 14 at 7:30 p. m.

About this time of year everyone needs a really attractive and useful sports coat, not necessarily to be worn for spectator sports, but for country weekends, for around the town and for travel. The new models are warm and chic, perfect for wear over suits, and they will take a lot of heavy treatment, besides saving your fur hat. The three models shown above are excellent examples of the new styles. At the top left Ella Raines wears a casual model in wrap-around styling which boasts wide French cuffs, large over-pockets and pleated shoulders. A dark felt beret and shoulder pouch bag is worn by Miss Raines with this coat. Below, the same young lady is modeling a full-length suede coat with wide belt, full-length sleeves and slit pockets. Matching suede beret, colorful scarf and brown stitched gloves complete this outfit. Right is Ann Blyth wearing a stunning beige coat in wrap-around styling with full sleeves buttoned at the wrist. Silver buttons mark the double-breasted effect. Wide revers and slanting huge pockets are other details.

Map above shows route six-man Norwegian anthropological expedition hopes to follow on a daring 4000-mile voyage aboard a frail balsa wood raft to prove that the South Sea islands were originally settled by prehistorical white men from South America. Their 45x18-foot craft was towed from Callao, Peru, to a point opposite Pisco, where it was cast adrift in the strong Humboldt current. The current is expected to carry them northward into the South Equatorial current. Thor Heyerdahl, 32-year-old ethnologist, the expedition's commander, believes this great oceanic stream will sweep him and his crew to the Marquesas islands. Heyerdahl's theory is that this route was followed by white men, driven out of Peru many centuries ago by Indian tribes—the Incas or their predecessors.

Large map above shows how Army's atom-bomb-carrying B-29's and still more powerful B-36 super-bombers could fan out over the top of the world to far-off points in Europe, Asia and Africa under the projected $14,000,000 Air Force base 30 miles northwest of Presque Isle, in Aroostook County, Me. Lower map shows close-up of the site, strategically located for planes to attack any of the great industrial centers of the world. It is also the shortest Air Force-Euro-U. S. aerial invasion route down the St. Lawrence valley. AAF says construction will begin about June 15 and B-36's range may be completed by fall, 1948. B-29's have a range of 6,500 miles and B-36's range 15,000 miles. Gen. Carl Spaatz, AAF commander, foresees 13,000-mile-range planes in a few years.

Proper Community Planning Stressed

(By Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, May 7.—Proper community planning can assure "progressive realization of a better pattern and a better way of life," Dr. Louis Wirth, University of Chicago sociologist, declared today.

Addressing the opening session of the annual conference of the American Society of Planning Officials, he said:

"Most communities in this country will be virtually rebuilt in the course of the next 50 or 100 years, whether they have the benefit of planning or not. They will be rebuilt piecemeal, and there is no assurance that they will be so rebuilt that they will be better communities 50 or 100 years hence than they are today."

Proper planning, however, can guide that development in such a way that every change or improvement that is made day to day will cumulatively lead to the progressive realization of a better pattern and a better way of life.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

(Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

The 'Crosley Frostmaster' HOME FREEZER

Sold Exclusively at Salem Appliance Co.

"Frostmasters" are powered with the same dependable unit used in the Crosley "Shelvardor" refrigerator!

The "Frostmaster" consumes no more current than an electric refrigerator; the thermostat control, located beneath the cabinet, maintains freezing storage temperature.

This new low-priced home freezer is designed especially to fit the needs of the average housewife — it will hold enough garden-fresh frozen foods, meats, poultry, etc., for a family of four for two weeks. Ready-to-put-in-the-oven foods can be kept in the "Frostmaster" and used as needed.

All working parts of the "Frostmaster" are hermetically sealed, requiring no oil or care; all exposed hardware is corrosion resistant. The electric welded exterior shell of the cabinet is thoroughly sealed with mastic sealer to eliminate moisture infiltration.

The Crosley freezer is equipped with an automatic safety latch and table top work surface of linoleum with polished aluminum trim. Interior and exterior are of white Dulux finish; all corners of the cabinet are rounded to facilitate cleaning. The "Frostmaster" needs only to be defrosted twice yearly.

Other modern conveniences include the recessed toe base; flush-to-the-floor construction, and a wire basket, movable for quick inventory.

Add milk and stir lightly. Roll dough into a 10-inch square. Cut into six pieces. Roll each frankfurter in a piece of dough, being careful to pinch edges together. Ten-Minute Nap Restores Energy

By ALICIA HART

Take time out to take a nap. Every girl from 16 to 60 needs to snatch a cat-nap—or its equivalent in rest—if she's on the go all day.

Ever notice the girl who stretches out on the couch in the ladies' room to salvage a few minutes of rest during her lunch hour? Watch her. See if she doesn't keep going with more vigor when her fellow workers are showing signs of strain.

Even a girl in her teens can't dodge the penalty of fatigue. Her pep dwindles. As fresh as her young skin is, its color ebbs. Her speech grows less brisk. The wise crack is slow in coming or it doesn't come at all.

The older woman is even less able than the young girl to look her glowing best or speak her sprightliest without a period of let-up during a day's grind.

So, salvage a little time for stretching out on your back, propping feet up and relaxing. If you can sleep forty winks, so much the better. But if there is not enough time to woo sleep, lie quietly and rest. You can take time out to rest from the tightest schedule.

You can, for instance, always slip off from your gang five or ten minutes early. You don't have to stay at a party until the last "goodby" is said. Five or ten minutes can usually be salvaged from a dressing routine by omitting unimportant rituals, telescoping others.

THE REAL PRE-WAR STUFF

There is no need any longer to delay the repair work your car needs. Parts and supplies are back, and we have the latest post-war equipment for servicing your car and getting it in shape. In our desire to serve you, you will find we show the real pre-war spirit—in giving you the most reasonable estimates, and getting your work done right—and on time. Give us a trial, and see why we are building the fastest growing service business in town.

Every Line is a look at Tomorrow

YOU spot it on the highway every time a Buick comes along:

Here you meet the future face-to-face.

Here you see the clean, rich, uncluttered design that marks the swing away from what was to what is going to be.

Here's the sweep and flow of fender line that's called for by a streamlined age — here's the solid, steady look that spells roadability — the broad beam that means room — the massive bonnet that tells of Fireball power aplenty.

Here's grace, here's ability, here's sturdy dependability — all wrapped up in one handsome package that's not merely up-to-the-times but ahead of it.

Here are the good looks that bespeak good works; you hardly have to be told of precisions carried to ten-thousandths of an inch, of materials searched out from the finest to be found.

Any wonder that such a creation is America's most wanted automobile? Any wonder people pass up cars that may be easier to get to wait for a car that's going to stay fresh and new and modern-looking?

The simple fact is that you're buying in the future when you buy any good car today. Why not settle on the one that most obviously foretells what the future will be — that has the most in it of what is to come?

Buick dealers' showrooms are kept pretty bare of display models by the eagerness of Buick buyers to "take over" the first minute they can.

But you'll be greeted in every one of them with courtesy and sincere interest in getting your Buick at the first minute possible.

Drop in — talk it over — and insure yourself a happy future by placing your order now. We'll take it, with or without a car to trade.

Warren Edges Salem In Dual Meet Under Lights At Reilly

Presidents Take Affair After Trailing Prior To Final Event; Corbin Stars

Handily winning the mile relay, final event on the card, the Warren Harding High Presidents defeated Fred Cope's Quaker thin-clads Tuesday night in a track meet in Reilly stadium by a 61 1/3 to 56 2/3 score.

The visitors trailed by 1/3 point prior to the final race.

Salem won only six of the 14 events, but made some rather good individual marks in doing so, despite the cold weather.

Dick Theiss contributed his best broad jump of the year—20 feet two inches—but could get no better than a second in the event behind Warren's Walt Corbin, who leaped seven inches further.

Bob Boone high jumped six feet to win the event.

Glenn Thorne ran a 4:40 mile, also his season's best, but lost the half mile by a step to Pate of Warren in the very good time of 2:05.9 min.

John Huddleston showed improvement in copping first in both hurdle events.

Corbin was the high scorer in the meet with 14 1/2 points. He won the broad jump and 220, was second in the 440 and a member of the winning mile relay team.

Huddleston's 10 points were second.

A crowd of several hundred attended the meet, held under the lights.

120 yd high hurdles—Huddleston (S) won; T. Boone (S) 2nd; Crenshaw (W) 3rd. Time: 16.8 sec.

IT'S FELLER AT YANKEES TODAY

CLEVELAND, May 7.—Rookie Frank Shea, one of the New York Yankees' most promising freshmen, takes the mound today against blazng Bob Feller as the Cleveland Indians open a two-game series with the Bronx bombers at the stadium.

Feller was aiming for his fourth victory, against two losses, after giving his arm exercise yesterday by autographing copies of his autobiography, "Strikeout Story," as it hit the public market.

Meanwhile, Indians' President Bill Veeck asserted at Akron last night that the third-place Tribesmen should finish in the American league's first division this year.

"I don't say the Indians are the best ball club in the league," said Bill in a speech before the Rubber City's advertising club, "but we look like a good bet to finish in the first division."

Veeck said the Tribe lost 150,000 admissions because of recent rains.

TEST NEW ANTI-FOG LIGHT SYSTEM AT LANDING FIELD

PREPARING THE WORLD'S BRIGHTEST LIGHT for a test at Cleveland Municipal Airport, W. A. Pennow, aviation lighting engineer for Westinghouse, touches a lamp tube capable of producing, with the aid of a reflector, more than three billion candlepower of light. The artist's drawing shows how the all-weather lighting system, designed to conquer fog, will appear from the air. As the plane at right approaches for a landing, the pilot will see the brilliant flash of 72 approach lights, which extend almost two-thirds of a mile from the runway. These lightning-like flashes penetrate for 1,000 feet, even under "zero-zero" weather conditions, thus guiding the plane safely to its runway. Colored lights serve as traffic indicators. (International) superintendent of schools, spoke. Dancing in the high school gym, beautifully decorated for the occasion concluded the evening's entertainment.

Miss Rose is senior class president; Sara Lou Todd, vice president; Peggy Hoffman, secretary and Jerry Mercer, treasurer. Mrs. Biehler and Mrs. Seachrist are the advisors.

DeLucia is Junior class president; Ruth Brain, vice president, Leona Bell, secretary and Donna Youss, treasurer. Miss Evelyn Chapman is advisor.

Friends have been advised of the birth of a daughter April 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Rowan of Cuyahoga Falls. Mrs. Rowan is the former June Rummell Thompson, a teacher at Leetonia High school.

George Weikart submitted to an operation at the Salem Clinic Saturday.
